Observed in Nakhodka

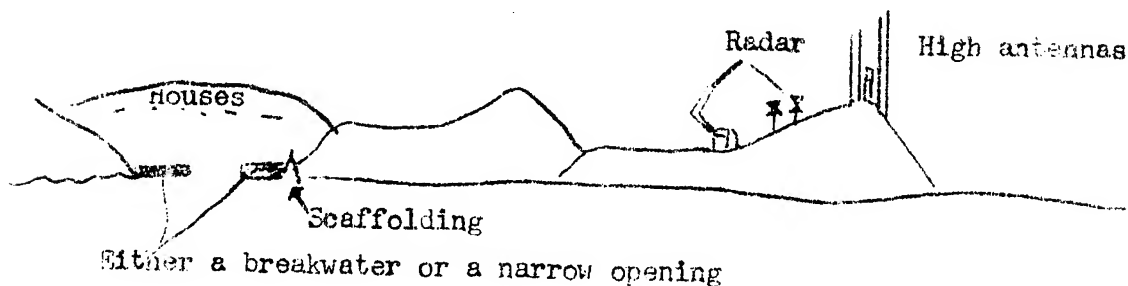

50X1-HUM

1. [redacted] vessel passed Lisiv Ostrov (N 42-46, E 132-54) en route to Nakhodka, [redacted] a gun position on the mainland across from the northern tip of Lisiv Ostrov. One gun was visible; its base was somewhat white. What appeared to be three barrels protruded above the treetops on the top of the hill. Two dark gray, almost black, buildings (?) were located nearby. See sketch below.

3. At Mys Bakhireva, [redacted] the antiaircraft gun position. 50X1-HUM

[redacted] The muzzles were a dark gray and the gun bases, which were 50 to 60 centimeters high, were covered with canvas. On a hilltop north of the gun position was what appeared to be a power-generating truck parked behind a house which had a veranda and an extended roof. [redacted] a merchant ship signaling with a red light. The signal was answered by a red light from the vicinity of the truck. See sketches on pages 4 to 7. 50X1-HUM

4. South of Mys Astafyeva (N 42-36, E 131-13) near the lighthouse on the coast of Bukhta Amerika, [redacted] cave-like entrances on the hillside. [redacted] people entering the structure. The front of the structure was constructed of rocks or broken bricks. The roof appeared to be concrete. Dead trees were visible in front of and beside the structure. Visible above this site in the distance was the high tower which was located behind Berth No. 1 in Nakhodka. See sketch on page 4. 50X1-HUM

5. [redacted] in Nakhodka, [redacted] a great deal of dynamiting activity being conducted on the shore of Bukhta Nakhodka near the Mys Astafyeva lighthouse. [redacted] some blasting in the Amerikanka area. 50X1-HUM

6. The following merchant ships were observed in Nakhodka [redacted] 50X1-HUM

b. VANTSETTI, about 5,000 tons, loading coal at Berth No. 10A. She was an old ship with four large masts.

c. GVARDEYSK, about 5,000 tons. She had a dark gray hull whereas the superstructure, masts, and derricks were white.

d. ALEKSANDR PUSHKIN, an old ship of about 3,000 tons, which loaded lumber at Berth No. 10A [redacted] 50X1-HUM

e. NORILSK, a passenger ship painted bright gray. [redacted]

f. [redacted]

g. PSKOV, docked at Berth No. 5 or 6. [redacted]
